

Texas A&M San Antonio | Multi-Purpose Building San Antonio, TX

Architect: Kell Munoz Architects

General Contractor: Bartlett Cocke General Contractors

Other Contractors: Valleycrest Landscape Development

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The multipurpose building located on the Texas A&M University San Antonio campus is a three-story administration and classroom facility. It is the first facility to be built on the 600-plus acre campus located on the Southside of San Antonio, Texas.

Photography by: Steve Mechler and Associates